“COLLECTIBLE TREASURES”

The Redwood City Heritage Association will hold an old fashion “yard sale” to raise funds for the continued restoration of the 1863 Victorian known as the Benjamin G. Lathrop House Museum.

Included in the items to be sold are recent donations from the Gladys Woodhams’ estate, as well as donations from other supporters of Lathrop House. Many items from the Tarnished Doorknobs collectible shop that is located within Lathrop House will also be in the yard sale. The house will not be open for tours during the sale.
Cash only and all sales final.
